Discouragement of the Democracy—The President's Presidential Preferences.

Within the past two or three weeks a re[illegible]markable want of faith in the success of the Democratic ticket in the November election and a general lukewarmness in their cause have been observable. Men who spoke of the election of Seymour and Blair a few weeks ago as a matter so certain as to admit of no doubt now show a disposition to take sides in the other corner. The defection of a number of prominent individuals from the Democratic cause has given rise to a great deal of gossip. Rumor has been busy in these latter days in this regard, and it is with the political views of men occupying exalted official positions. In times like the present, when the opinions of leading men are of importance in adding to or subtracting from the weight of influence cast for either party a great deal in regard to their views finds its way to the public in spite of all efforts for their concealment, and Madame Rumor may whisper among her many absurdities a good many facts. Now it has been rumored that the adherents of Seymour and Blair do not meet with the sympathy and hearty coöperation at the White House that they believe they have a right to expect. It has transpired that on one or two occasions quite recently certain managing Democrats who visited the President to enlist his aid in getting up diversion in favor of the Democracy have gone away with their tempers unduly modulated, that their mutterings about apostacy sotto voce of course, for it is a matter they did not feel themselves warranted in mentioning publicly, were deep though silent. In short it is said that although the President permits it to be generally understood that his sympathies are with the Democracy, he takes very good care that his actions are not open to the same construction. There are those in this city who speak with the greatest confidence concerning the real political bias of President Johnson, and they assert that he will do nothing to aid in the election of the Democratic nominees, while he has done much to further the interest of Grant and Colfax. As a case in point they refer to the President's action in favor of the Tennessee Legislative Committee. They assert that he not only cheerfully promised the military aid requested, but he conversed with them on the political affairs of their State in such an agreeable way that the committee were puzzled to imagine how the President ever obtained the reputation of being such a thorough paced Democrat. This, too, is said to be the reason why members of the press were so rigidly excluded from the interview and why the committee were cautioned not to divulge what transpired therein. The Alabama committee encountered quite as cordial a reception as their predecessors, and they, too, came away with an elation of spirits such as is likely to be inspired by a secret comfort. It would be singular if after all that has been said the President should be found among the supporters of Grant in company with Seward, Evarts and Schofield. —Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Who are the Democrats—Who the Republicans?

From the Sacramento Union.

The election returns from Pennsylvania, as far as figures have been given in different counties, show Republican gains in the rural districts, in some of them unexpectedly large. Lancaster, for example, the largest farming county in the State and the most intelligent, has a reported Republican majority of 6,600; there are also gains in Chester, Schuylkill and Dauphin, all old farming regions and filled with the intelligence of the State. In these counties illegal voting is a thing unheard of, and there is no reason to suspect that it was practiced this year. Yet the Republicans show great gains. The heaviest majority ever given by Lancaster was, we believe, that of 1866 for Governor Geary, 6,000. She has beaten that by 600 this year. We apprehend that when the returns reach us more in detail Dauphin, Lebanon, Chester, Cumberland, Adams, Bedford, Washington and Somerset will show like Republican gains. Anticipating something of this kind, the Philadelphia dealers in human cattle had all their traps prepared to offset these gains in the sober honest interior by the illegal votes of Democratic proletaries of whom they had present a capital of thousands to work up to their wishes. Illegal naturalization papers issued by infamous Courts and a Democratic Sheriff's posse of 2,000 special bullies armed with official authority enabled them, according to Forney's statement, to poll 10,000 of these from unillegal votes, elect the city ticket with three Congressmen and change the result, expected Republican victory by at least 4,000, to a Democratic victory by probably not less than 6,000. The worthless, riotous, floating mob, manipulated in the interest of their Democratic office-seeking plunderers have wrested the Government of the city from the control of the men of property, worth and intelligence who made it, who own it and whose taxes keep it up. They have done this not by the decision of a lawful majority of the voters, but through fraud, perjury, subornation and brute force. There is hardly any doubt that with a fair election in Philadelphia, the State of Pennsylvania would have given a majority of 25,000 for Gen. Hartranft. As it is his majority will be cut down probably to something less than 12,000, at least until the Republican contestants of Philadelphia shall secure a judicial decision against their opponents and succeed in setting aside the entire batch of fraudulent votes cast by the Democratic party.

LET US HAVE PEACE.—The living flood of patriotism which turned the streets of St. Louis into blazing rivers of fire on Saturday night was the best reply that could be made to the threat that Democrats would turn them into rivers of blood. No man who looked upon that wonderful outpouring of loyalty could doubt that the Radicals of this city have both the will and the power to maintain the laws at all hazards. On they came! for more than an hour with steady tramp, veterans of many battle fields, marching with the solid ranks and the firm step of men who know how to fight as well as to vote. [illegible] all! Look at them, Democrats! They are not boys, they are not hirelings scraped from the streets, they are not paroled prisoners of war, they are not men who vote or fight without an intelligent reason. They are the bone and muscle, the brain and nerve of this great city. They ask only a fair election, for they are all voters and in number strong enough to beat any party that can be brought against them. They will vote for Grant and Peace; what chance do you think Blair and revolution have in St. Louis? But look at them twice before you begin fighting. Count the cost well before you raise a hand to resist the law in this city! Let there be peace, order, good feeling, and obedience to law, and these men will remain quiet, industrious and peaceable citizens. But raise the torch of civil war and ten thousand bayonets will leap from their scabbards. You can guess the rest.—St. Louis Democrat, Sept. 28th.

Disturbances in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23.—Last night a number of disguised persons entered the parish jail at Carrollton and shot two negroes who had been twice convicted of outrages on white women, and twice reprieved by Generals Sheridan and Mower.

A fire broke out [illegible] [illegible] this morning in Gretna opposite the lower part of the city. It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Reports are current that during the progress of the fire a number of negroes had been caught stealing goods. A fight ensued between the whites and the negroes and two of the latter were killed. A company of infantry and a body of police restored [illegible]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Tribune's New Orleans special describing the Gretna affair, says this morning a large mob of whites crossed the river. General Rousseau stopped the ferry boats, and sent a company to assist the police in preserving peace.

The Evening Times says the long impending conflict seems [illegible]. General Rousseau has requested two additional regiments. At one o'clock an armed mob of four hundred men ordered the metropolitan police to leave Gretna.

Murders by Arkansas Rebels.

The St. Louis Democrat's Little Rock special says James Hinds, member of Congress for the Second District was assassinated by [illegible]. Hon. Joseph R. Brooks, who was with Hinds, was wounded, but it is supposed not fatally. James Clarendon, an outspoken Republican, was also murdered in the same vicinity recently.

Another Indian Fight.

FORT WALLACE, Oct. 23.—A detachment of one hundred and twenty men, while escorting Gen. Carr to join his regiment on Beaver river, were attacked by five hundred Indians. The fight lasted from seven o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon, when the Indians withdrew completely disorganized and leaving nine killed.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The New Orleans steamer, Gen. Quitman, loaded with cotton, struck a snag yesterday above Bayou Sara, and sunk. All the passengers were saved, but the cargo is a total loss.

HAVANA, Oct. 23.—Volunteer companies are forming in all parts of Cuba, offering their services to the Captain General. [illegible] even in Puerto Principe for the first time.

Heavy rains in the interior prevent the troops from pursuing the insurgents as swiftly as is desired.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 23.—Minister Johnson was welcomed at the Town Hall yesterday by the Mayor, who presented an address from the corporation. Johnson replied [illegible] the effect that the peace of the two countries is not likely to be disturbed, and that negotiations now going on give assurance that nothing in the past or present will affect the peaceful relations of the two countries.

The address of the Chamber of Commerce was also read and briefly responded to by Johnson. He declined the discussion of the free trade question, as it was a legislative rather than a diplomatic question. After lunch, Johnson visited the news room and was received enthusiastically. Subsequently he visited the docks and river and [illegible] the banquet at the rooms of the Association. Among the guests were Lord Stanley and Gladstone. Johnson made a lengthy address of much significance and interest.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The Times comments favorably on the temper of Liverpool. It says that Johnson's speech was well received and earnest as to allowing a desire for practical peace making, the Ministers on both sides seem anxious to settle the pending questions—Seward, because he held office when the difficulties arose and may not desire to leave them to his successor to treat in a manner which he might regret, and Lord Stanley, because he has been so far successful in his policy and must wish when he retires to know that he has done a work by common consent allowed to be the most difficult of accomplishment of any that he has had placed before him.

MADRID, Oct. 23.—In accordance with the recommendation of the Central Junta, most of the Provisional Juntas have dissolved. It is reported that Senor Alozago will be appointed Minister to France.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—Prince Napoleon has written a letter to General Prim advocating the claims of the Duke of Aosta to the throne of Spain.

MADRID, Oct. 23.—At a large meeting held here to-day speeches were made and resolutions adopted in favor of the abolition of slavery throughout the Spanish dominions.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 23.—Some persons stayed away from the dinner to Johnson last night because Laird was invited to be present. Laird was requested to stay away, but would not. The climax of the banquet was reached when the health [illegible] Laird and Johnson—they grasped hands cordially and held each other by the hand [illegible] exchanging some words.

HOW THE NORTH HAS OPPRESSED THE SOUTH.—Ex Gov. Pierpont in a recent speech at Wheeling said:

We hear great complaints about the oppressions of this Republican party. Oppressions of what or whom. Is anybody in the whole North oppressed? anybody in West Virginia oppressed? Yes there is they say. Who? Those alone who gave aid and comfort to the Southern rebellion. And how much are they oppressed? Are they hanged as the [illegible] laws demand? When I went into the city of Richmond in the spring of 1865 I found all the business portion of the city in smouldering ashes. More than 300 acres of that beautiful city was lying there in ruins. They had the commissary stores for the support of the rebel army. Sharpers had bought up the balance of the rebel stores and provisions and had them stored away, exacting extortionate prices from the poor people for the necessaries of life. There were people there who had been living for two years on two meals a day. And there these stores were when General John C. Breckinridge issued an order, which was communicated from him to subordinate Confederate officers for the destruction of the city. The torch was applied in a hundred places at the same time, and but for the appearance of the Union troops next morning before eight o'clock, the whole city would have been a common ruin. Here was a suffering people, who for two years had been living on two meals a day. Now all their supplies were cut off. Everything from the country had been brought into the city to supply the army, and bought up by speculators. Here was a starving population not made poor and starving by the acts of the Federal Government, but brought to starvation by the leaders of the Confederacy, my dear Democrat, if you are here to-night, by the friends with whom you so much sympathize—Napoleon B. Forrest, Wade Hampton and Jefferson Davis—brought to starvation by the order of these men. I saw these starving people, women and children—and men, too. I saw them in lines 200 to 500 feet long pressing forward, whites in one line and blacks in another, and sometimes both mixed in the same line. What is going on here? The Commissary Department of the Freedmen's Bureau is giving food to these suffering people. Ay, my fellow citizens, it was the proudest day of my life to know that I belonged to a great Government, a great people that did such deeds of mercy. It was there in sight of Belle Isle, and Libby and Castle Thunder, where more than 10,000 of our Union soldiers had died from starvation in sight of Lee and in sight of Davis—in sight of the very Generals who are now trying to revive the "Lost Cause," and yet the vibrations of their guns had scarcely [illegible] to burden the air, and here was this great Republican Government feeding their poor by the thousands and the tens of thousands. The Uses of Adversity

The National Democratic Committee rightly interpreting the result of the late elections as a declaration by the people that they will not tolerate the idea of another rebellion have in their consternation issued an address disclaiming all thoughts of overturning the laws. Though pledged by their platform and by the declarations of their candidates to a revolutionary policy, the Committee step forward and say that "no man or set of men, however high they may be placed by the suffrages of their fellow citizens, can expect to receive the support of the Democratic party in any revolutionary attempt against the established laws"—which is as much as to say that if Seymour and Blair are elected and attempt to carry out the policy of the New York Convention, and, as Blair expresses it, "disperse the carpet bag governments" the Democratic party will not support them! Sweet, indeed are the uses of adversity. The Committee desire to make the people believe that the Democratic party has abandoned the issue on which it went into the campaign. Undoubtedly the late elections have whipped a good deal of the rebellion out of them but they have not received enough yet. November will finish the job.

To illustrate the difference between the whining, snivelling, subdued tone of the address issued by the Committee, and the rampant, rebellious, defiant language universally held by the party before the late elections humbled them, we append a portion of an editorial article which appeared in the Oregon Herald on the 28th of August last:

IT MEANS REVOLUTION

A Radical editor with verdant simplicity asks—"If Frank Blair's letter does not mean revolution, what does it mean?" Why, bless your simple soul! who told you it did not mean revolution? Democrats are so impracticable as to say precisely what they mean, and mean exactly what they say. Frank Blair's letter does mean revolution; it gives out no uncertain sound. His words are as clear as a bell and as bright as a sunbeam. They fell upon the country with the thrilling effect of a stroke of electricity, striking a sympathetic cord in the hearts of millions who had waited and watched with the heart sickness of hope deferred for signs which should betoken the dawn of their redemption from a worse than Egyptian bondage. Frank Blair gave the word of hope, of cheer, of redemption, which stirred the Convention as by the breath of Omnipotence; it was the word "Revolution"—a word of terror only to the tyrant and oppressor; to the oppressed a shibboleth to deeds of noble daring in defence of liberty and right when all other hope has failed; a word of warning to the oppressor of the bounds where submission is degradation and resistance is a duty.

About "Dead Ducks"

As if it were foredoomed that no circumstance should be wanting to aggravate the misfortunes of the Democracy and complete their overthrow, Andrew Johnson comes out actively on their side. He condenses one of the famous speeches he made while swinging round the circle, in 1866, into a telegram, sends it to Seymour, and causes it to be published at large through the country, with a view of aiding a cause which is already lost. His Excellency is one of those who never learn anything. He would have made a first-rate Bourbon, though Democrats used to say that Bourbon was what was the matter with him. Not satisfied with the result of his former appeals to the people to "save the Constooshun," he addresses them again on the same subject, and in the same elegant language. Seymour should be grateful for this favor, for it breaks the last strand in the cord of Democratic hope, and puts the party out of its misery at once. Its fortunes were already desperate enough, but Johnson's appeal in its behalf settles its fate. The people have a habit of repudiating whatever Johnson commends. His declaration that "the Constooshun is in danger" can scarcely be called new. The country in 1866 replied to a like declaration from him in a way that effectually squelched "my policy." Now that he has come out actively for Seymour and Blair we may reasonably expect that the majorities for Grant will be largely increased. To use the refined language of his Excellency himself, Seymour and Blair are very "dead ducks," and he has put the finishing shot into them.

THE TURNERS' FOR GRANT.—Last week's Patriot (German) publishes two addresses, one signed by the President and Secretary of the Turnerbundes, and the other signed by the Corresponding Secretary of the Turnvereins for the district of St. Louis, Missouri. Both documents are able and patriotic addresses, and call on the Turners throughout the Union to aid and assist in electing the Union candidates for President and Vice President. The first asserts that by so doing freedom, truth and justice will be triumphant, for which Turners have always battled. The St. Louis Turners claim that they were the first who laid down in their platform as a principle that they will war against slavery in every form and that they will embrace the opportunity on the 3d November next to declare for equal rights to all men. We regret that we are not prepared to give both addresses in full but would recommend to our German fellow citizens to read the same in the Patriot.

It is to be hoped that while Seymour is on his travels making speeches on financial matters, he will explain why he, "the model statesman," who only one week before the New York Convention met made speeches denouncing the payment of bonds in greenbacks as ruinous and dishonorable, now goes before the people on a platform which demands that the bonds be paid in greenbacks. It would be interesting to hear his reasons for his advocacy of a measure which he has often declared would lead to national dishonor and ruin. As he is making finances his specialty, it is to be hoped that he will not omit an explanation of this very interesting matter.

Every State and Territory which has held an election since the opening of the Presidential campaign has given a Republican majority. The list stands: Vermont, Maine, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, West Virginia, Colorado, New Mexico and Dacotah. What reason is there to think that all the rest (except Kentucky and Maryland) will not go the same way? None whatever. [illegible] we all feel that Grant's election [illegible] for Grant!

On the morning [illegible] the San Francisco Examiner the [illegible] Democratic paper [illegible] the Pacific [illegible]. That Democracy will [illegible] to doubt. [illegible] In fact it showed a wonderful alacrity in sinking. The Examiner's remarks is equivalent to giving up the contest.

Gen Ingalls and Gen Grant

It appears that Gen Rufus Ingalls has been made acquainted with the fact that his name has been bandied about very freely in Oregon as an authority to support the slanderous attacks of the Copperheads on Gen Grant. The following telegraphic dispatch effectually disposes of what the editor of the Herald and other persons have been saying on this subject:

NEW YORK, Oct 22, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN: To correct false statements I wish to say to those who have known me in Oregon that I am most positively in favor of General Grant. I know him to be a pure patriot, of irreproachable moral habits, the truest of friends and the best and greatest of living men. He has saved our country once; should he be elected President, peace and prosperity would be secured.

RUFUS INGALLS
Brevet Major General

On the 24th of last month the Herald published an article in which the names of Nesmith, Doolittle, Blair and Ingalls were used to prove that General Grant was a drunken man, "a victim of his inordinate love of intoxicating drinks and utterly unreliable in his moral character." In the same article the editor of the Herald said: "Rufus Ingalls was his (Grant's) earliest and longest friend; it was only by Ingalls' generous aid in stuffing him that he was enabled to graduate at West Point, and then only at the foot of his class. All these men who have aided him have found him not only a sot but a common liar, treacherous and incapable of gratitude or friendship." The reader will now see for himself how this agrees with the statement made over Gen Ingalls' own signature, that Grant is "a pure patriot, a man of irreproachable moral habits, the truest of friends and the best and greatest of living men."

On the 30th of January last the editor of the Herald spoke of having seen "a private letter from an intimate personal friend of Gen Grant," in which the opinion was positively expressed that Grant would not consent to become a candidate for President. "The letter says," we quote from the Herald—"that recent events have fully convinced all of Grant's immediate military friends that he could not be elected if nominated and their unanimous advice to him will be not to be a candidate." Though no name was given in connection with this private letter which the editor of the Herald professed to have seen (?) it was well understood here that he meant to convey the impression that such a letter had been received from Gen Ingalls. Those who have been so industriously using Ingalls' name in connection with the effort to disparage Grant may find some interesting things to meditate upon in the telegraphic dispatch published above.

Though the State of Ohio is strongly Republican, the last Legislature, representing a minority of the people, elected A. G. Thurman, a Vallandigham Democrat, to the United States Senate. Thurman will take his seat next March, though there is a majority against his party in his State of not less than thirty thousand. We do not mention this matter to complain of it, but simply to show that if there are Republican Senators from Democratic States there are also Democratic Senators from Republican States. Buckalew of Pennsylvania and Hendricks of Indiana have held seats in the Senate for six years, though their States have been strongly Republican all that time. But they will now be replaced by Republican Senators. So Doolittle of Wisconsin, Norton of Minnesota and Patterson of Tennessee are Democratic Senators from Republican States. Here are some facts for the ranting, canting Copperheads of Oregon who are so anxious to have our Senators resign.

The Copperheads make a great ado because the Republicans urge that it will be to the interest of Oregon to vote for Grant and Colfax and thus be in a situation to obtain assistance from the Administration. Now this is the sole argument which the Democrats formerly used in Oregon to show that their candidates ought to be sent to Congress. Oregon, they used to say, should vote Democratic so as to be in sympathy with the dominant party. This was never failing argument for many years. But when the Republicans use it these same Democrats call it an attempt to bribe the voters of Oregon!

Nathaniel Coe, who died at his residence on Hood river on the 17th inst., was an old citizen of Oregon, widely known and universally esteemed. He was a native of New Jersey. In early life he went to Western New York, and served repeatedly in the Legislature of that State. In 1851 he came to Oregon, commissioned as Postal Agent by President Fillmore. He has since resided here. He was a man of varied information and extensive culture, and continued his habits of study till the last weeks of his life. He was more than eighty years of age when he died.

It is reported that the Presidency of the State University of California has been or will be offered to Mr. G. B. McClellan. Happy idea! He is just the man to teach the young the use of the spade in the agricultural department of that institution. That older and better Democrat, R. E. Lee, has descended to the Presidency of a college; why shouldn't "littlemac" take a similar situation?

The Herald man who stuck to it for weeks and weeks that the Republican majority in Maine was but 15,000, now asserts in almost every issue of his paper that the Republican majority in Pennsylvania does not exceed 3,000. Four years ago, at just such a juncture as this, he was claiming that his party had carried Pennsylvania. His habit of inveracity is inveterate, and of course, quite incorrigible.

The San Francisco Examiner cries in agony: "In the carnival of ignorance, brutality and seeming Mongrel triumph, let every true Democrat and lover of Constitutional liberty stand firm by his colors. Let every Democrat stand firm. Mongrelism may have triumphed in the States which have just held elections but its ruin will be attended by its own ruin." Ha! ha! ha!

The only item of election news which the Polk County Signal gives is the fact that Philadelphia has elected a Democratic Mayor. Not a word is given regarding the general result. It is ludicrous to see the Signal devour this one small crumb with such avidity.

The New York Tribune publishes a table which shows that its circulation is 301,000 copies,—the largest circulation of any newspaper in the world, and many thousands larger than the Tribune ever before enjoyed.

BY TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM, Oct 25.—Both houses held on till 12 o'clock last night and adjourned till Monday morning.

The general appropriation bill is still pending in the House. It will probably go through on Monday.

A joint convention will be held to-morrow to elect pilot commissioners for Columbia river and Coos Bay, penitentiary and insane asylum commissioners, board [illegible] physicians for Insane Asylum and librarian.

The Joint Committee to investigate the books and accounts of the State Treasurer submitted a report to each house last night. The report finds everything correct and in substance [illegible] compliments the Treasurer. The House refused to print. The Senate ordered [illegible].

Huston, Senator from Long Tom, got disgusted last night and resigned. A few other members have gone home, but a quorum in each house still remains.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Friday, Oct 23, 1868.

THE [illegible] CHINA [illegible]

In the Senate this morning Miller of Jackson from the Committee on Federal Relations reported back the iron clad China tax bill, without any amendment. He said that he was in favor of the bill and of the amendment he offered yesterday but rather than risk the failure of the bill by attaching the amendment, he had reported the bill without it. Mr Cochran spoke against the bill not because he opposed the policy but because its provisions were in contravention of the laws of the United States and the treaties existing between this country and China. Mr Herman spoke to the same import at greater length. Strut and Bayley spoke in favor of the bill, on grounds of policy without attempting to answer the objections urged by Messrs Cochran and Herman. The bill passed by a vote of thirteen to nine.

THE TUG BOAT BILL

The House bill providing for a tug boat at the mouth of the Columbia river was defeated last evening by a very decided vote. This morning the vote was reconsidered and the bill passed by a vote of eighteen to three. It seems that most of those voting nay before had not understood the bill or had not properly considered the importance to our commerce of having a tug boat on the bar of the Columbia river.

INDEX TO AMENDED LAWS

Mr Huston introduced a joint resolution which was adopted providing that the Secretary of State shall prepare and publish an index volume for the purpose of showing what parts of the code have been amended or repealed. It must contain every section or chapter which has been amended in any manner, or repealed and they must be mentioned as near as possible in the following style:

Section ___ of the act ___ amended in the year ___ and now reads as follows: [Here the section must be set out as now in force.] Or if the act has been repealed it must be so stated. [illegible] will be a very useful index to the laws.

THE FOUR MILL SCHOOL TAX

The bill to authorize the levy of a four mill school tax for the support of free schools was worried through the House against the opposition of a majority of the Democratic members and when it came into the Senate was attacked by Strut, Huston, Cochran and Travitt. It was ably supported by Messrs Cornelius and Herman but the anti free school men were too many for the friends of liberal education and the bill was lost. Every Democrat, except Mr Crawford voted against it and thus put themselves on record as opposed to a free school system. Cochran exhibited his need of information by saying that he did not believe the numerous petitioners for the law had any knowledge of the fact that there is now in the State Treasury $240,000 of school fund to be distributed among the counties whenever the school superintendents should wake up and send in their reports as required by law! He thought this amount added to the present tax would be amply sufficient to support the schools.

IN THE HOUSE—APPROPRIATION BILL

Mr Warmire, chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means introduced a bill to provide appropriations for the ordinary expenses of the State Government for the next two years. The amount of appropriations is $225,327 82. This does not include the $12,000 appropriated early in the session to pay per diem and mileage of members of the Legislature.

MEMORIALS ADOPTED

The following memorials were adopted: Asking a lighthouse at Yaquina Bay; asking aid for the Hillsboro and Columbia River Railroad Company; asking aid for the Salt Lake and Portland railroad (adopted finally by agreeing to conference report.)

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED

The following bills and resolutions were passed: A joint resolution to provide for the distribution of the laws; joint resolution instructing the Governor to contract with J. C. Hawthorne for the keeping of the insane and idiotic, for the next two years; Senate bill to create the office of Register of Lands for the La Grande district.

Several Senate and House bills were disposed of by being laid on the table or indefinitely postponed.

SALEM, Saturday, Oct 24, 1868.

In both houses the proceedings of to-day have been mostly of a strictly business character and, therefore, furnish very dry materials for a letter. The slaughter of Senate bills began in the House yesterday, and has proceeded to-day with such wholesale success as cannot fail to gratify the most bloody minded member in that body. The Senate has returned the compliment to some extent though it has proceeded with rather more consideration for the importance of the measures presented.

CENSURE OF THE GOVERNOR AND EX GOVERNOR

Gilfrey, who seems to have a relish for doing ex Governor Whiteaker's scolding, offered a resolution this morning, strongly censuring Gov Woods and ex Gov Gibbs. The facts on which the resolution is based are the reports of the Penitentiary which do not make any mention of transactions for the period between the 1st and 14th of September, 1866. A. C. R. Shaw, then Superintendent, made his report on the 1st and did not make any subsequent report. Gov Gibbs was then Governor. Gov Woods was inaugurated on the 14th and the present Superintendent was appointed, I think, on the next day. His reports, of course, covered only the time from his assumption of the office. A few days ago Gilfrey offered a resolution which was adopted, calling on Gov Woods for information concerning the interregnum of fourteen days. The Governor sent in a message stating the facts in the case and that he could not furnish the desired information. This message was referred to a special committee of which Gilfrey was chairman. The resolution introduced and adopted this morning concludes with a censure of ex Governor Gibbs and Gov. Woods and declares that Governor Woods merits the condemnation and contempt of all good men of the State. Speaker Whiteaker left the chair and made a speech in favor of the resolution. He said he thought it the duty of the Governor to furnish the information. Two or three attempts were made to amend by striking out the more offensive words, but they failed, and the resolution was adopted by a strict party vote—28 to 16.

The bill which originated in the Senate ceding lands to the United States for a light house at Cape Blanco, was passed.

The remainder of the day was spent in disposing of bills, of which many were passed and not a few lost in one way or another.

Both houses are now holding an evening session. Up to the present time, half past ten P. M., the House has not passed any resolution concerning adjournment, and the Senate has just refused to transmit a message informing the House of the Senate's readiness to adjourn. There is a sort of understanding, however, that an adjournment will take place to-night.

STATE ITEMS.

A number of farmers of Yamhill have started with herds of cattle to Yakima.

McCune of Corvallis, whose steam saw mill was burned some months ago, is preparing to rebuild.

The Courier says the people of Yamhill county will assist the P. T. Co. in improving the Yamhill river.

Messrs Groves & Horning are erecting a building for a carding mill on Oak creek, one and a half miles from Corvallis.

Rev. H. C. Jenkins, of the M. E. Church, at Albany, received a donation visit last Tuesday evening, at which the visitors did the "handsome thing."

Gen Jasper of the Courier heads an article "Sic itur ad astra." He does not favor us with a translation but probably means that his party is to "go up" and "see stars."

The Albany Register says: A gentleman who visited our city on Thursday exhibited specimens of gold taken from new placer discoveries on the north fork of North Umpqua river. It was of the "bars" denominated scale gold.

The Corvallis paper says: A few days since the warehouse of Messrs. Turner & Starr at Monroe, in which was stored some 13,000 or 14,000 bushels of wheat, gave way, and several hundred [illegible] the river. The damage [illegible] but we have not learned the particulars.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 24.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Arbitration and Award.

NEW YORK, Oct 24.—John T. Hoffman, referee in the case of the Nicaragua Transit Company against Cornelius Vanderbilt to compel the latter to pay $300,000 which has been pending [illegible] has awarded 186,000 [illegible] Company. [illegible] of the claim was for [illegible]. The claim for the money received by the Company from the Pacific Mail Company was allowed.

Seymour's Financial Nonsense.

CHICAGO, Oct 24.—Seymour is now addressing an immense crowd in Court Square. His speech is essentially the same as that at Buffalo [illegible] Republican financial policy.

Trial of a Democratic Forger.

Naturalization in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct 24.—Registration [illegible] here. The Democrats say they have issued 7,000 papers. The Republicans say they have issued 2,070. [illegible] The Tribune says [illegible] have been made.

Death of Gen. Fairchild.

Lawlessness in Arkansas.

ST. LOUIS, Oct 24.—The Republican's Little Rock special says the reports of the assassination of Congressman Hinds is correct. The report further intimates that if Hinds had been [illegible] the Radicals did the deed [illegible] the Radical [illegible]. The Radicals charge the killing on Democrats.

On the 20th fifty negroes attacked Dardanelles, firing into the houses of whites, who rallied and drove them away.

ST. LOUIS, Oct 24.—The Times of this city says there are 10,000 stand of small arms in St. Louis purchased for the Governor of Arkansas and that the Southern [illegible] that it has been impossible to get them shipped South.

Terrible Railroad Accident.

ALBANY, Oct 24.—A portion of the train on the Hudson river railroad was thrown from the track last night, and three cars [illegible] forty persons injured [illegible] killed.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

[illegible] the speech of Reverdy Johnson [illegible] Lord Stanley. The Times believes that [illegible] will be settled [illegible] Lord Stanley's [illegible]. The Daily News says Johnson's task [illegible] vacancies between England and America [illegible] completed by Mr Adams [illegible] the meeting between Johnson and Laird, the News says Johnson's [illegible] Laird who built the Alabama, applies equally to Bentinck who sailed her.

The Telegraph rejoices in the new era of diplomacy as exemplified in the Ministers meeting and discussing in a friendly manner public questions.

The Standard says if the result of the negotiations pending between the two countries has failed, it will certainly not be the fault of either of the Ministers.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 25.—A light shock of earthquake was felt at thirteen minutes before eight this morning. Last evening at nine o'clock the west wall and second floor of the Railroad House [illegible] fell in with a terrific crash. The building was [illegible] wreck Wednesday and has been gradually giving way ever since.

A. O. Richardson, a pioneer and prominently known as a leading stage and express man, died on Friday.

Saturday night the 31st the Democrats propose to have a grand torchlight procession. Preparations for the grand Union Republican torchlight procession Tuesday evening are going on apace and it is expected to be the most magnificent political demonstration ever made on this coast.

The Campaign in California.

SANTA ROSA, Oct 24.—A large and enthusiastic Union mass meeting was held here to-day. Eloquent and forcible speeches were made by Prof. Leppell and General Houghton. A very large Union meeting is now (8 o'clock P. M.) being held at Kearny Hall. It is filled to overflowing, many standing, unable to get in. Hon. Henry Edgerton is making one of his characteristic speeches and will be followed by Judge Tyler.

SANTA ROSA, Oct 24.—A great and enthusiastic meeting of Democrats is now being held in the court house at this place. The house is filled to its utmost capacity. J. N. Bothall is addressing the audience in an eloquent manner and is repeatedly interrupted with cheers for Seymour and Blair. Capt. Wm. McCullough and Judge Wallace are to follow, who doubtless will acquit themselves with their usual ability.

NATHANIEL COE.

Died—October 18th, 1868, aged seventy nine years.

The writer knew him in 1828 in Newbury Valley, Allegany county, New York. He was for many years Justice of the peace and supervisor of the town. In 1830 being a prominent man of his party he was elected on the Whig ticket as a member of the State Legislature and by his constant faithful devotion to the interests of his constituents was re-elected term after term for many years. It was generally conceded by all parties that Mr Coe exercised more influence in the Legislature than any other member. In fact any one wanting a bill passed went to "Old Father Coe." If the bill was all right Mr Coe took it in hand and it passed. Mr. Coe was appointed Postal Agent for Oregon in 1851 by President Fillmore to the duties of which office he devoted his whole time and abilities. Old Oregonians will remember with what faithfulness he attended to his various duties in this regard. He was [illegible] one of the noblest works of God—An Honest Man.

Mr Coe was a member of the [illegible] Church, although not a strict sectarian he was considered the Baptist as his church [illegible] general—kind hospitality.

Peace to his ashes—[illegible] T. D.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NA- ture that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him, and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of. In conformity with that law it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex, who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families, should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below other houses. Men, more bold and less calculating than our fair ladies, should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel, indeed are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's, No. 31 Front street.

SALEM ITEMS.—From the Unionist of yesterday we gather the following items of news: The [illegible] received during the week about 4,000 [illegible] of wheat. [illegible] mills shipped four hundred barrels of flour. The price for wheat is 80 c[illegible]. A lady at one of the hotels in Salem has been indulging [illegible] Col. Chapman [illegible] of Oregon [illegible] shed yesterday.—The great land case of [illegible] McClane was [illegible] last week.—The [illegible] has accepted the [illegible] of Mr Hurst as State Senator from Lane county, to take effect from last Friday night at twelve o'clock.—The [illegible] of Marion county levied a tax of fourteen mills on the dollar, as follows: County seven mills; [illegible] two mills; State, five mills.

[illegible] ALIVE.—The Enterprise at Oregon City [illegible] to dwell in the Webfoot country, the [illegible] having gone to La Grande as he [illegible] last week the [illegible]. The paper came to hand [illegible] thirty columns of U. S. laws and two columns of [illegible] matter and ad[illegible] will live much longer [illegible] Clackamas ought to support it. From the last num[illegible] we learn that an entertainment [illegible] at W[illegible] Hall, in that city on the [illegible] of the 20th and 21st, was the most successful of any ever held there, the receipts were $123 50, to be applied for the benefit of [illegible] Lodge No. 1, Order of the [illegible] Star.

[illegible] Some time since we [illegible] to the sewer on Columbia street, which was then in a bad condition, the boxing having decayed. [illegible] that way on last [illegible] we observed that nothing has yet been done to make it safe and useful. At several points in the vicinity of the intersection of Fourth with [illegible] street, the top of the sewer has fallen in, leaving great holes in the street and making it a [illegible] to travel there unless caution is used. We hope some one will see to it that the repairs are [illegible] soon, as the [illegible] will exist to keep the [illegible] open and unobstructed.

DON'T SWEAR.—In these times when we hear of "earthquakes" in divers places [illegible] to those convulsions of nature is perhaps more [illegible] than at other times. A few months since, taking it for granted that [illegible] is the cause of earthquakes and other terrestrial commotions, the municipality of [illegible] issued the following [illegible] and blasphemy being the real cause of earthquakes, it is hereby forbidden to all who [illegible] under penalty of receiving twenty-five [illegible] and the sum of twenty five florins. If such a decree were in force here it would make busy times for our courts and their ministerial officers. Or, if this were the real cause, we would get a general shaking up every twenty-four hours.

VANCOUVER RACES.—The [illegible], Oct. 22—trotting; first race entered by Mr. Shaw and Mr. Nichols, mile heats, best three in five won by Shaw; time, first heat, four minutes. Second heat won by Shaw; time, three minutes and thirty five seconds, Nichols withdrawing.

Second race—Trotting: between same [illegible] and same horses, best two in three; first heat won by Shaw, time [illegible] minutes and three [illegible] heat won by Shaw; time three minutes and 25 [illegible].

FAILED.—We learn that the Democratic meeting on Saturday evening was a failure. It was too rainy to get a crowd in front of the Western Hotel, and they [illegible] wouldn't go to the Court House. However, as it is well known who were the assailants and who caused the war it is presumed Col. Shiel, who was announced to address the people on those questions did not think it necessary to say anything about the matter.

REFRESHING.—During the past two or three days we have had frequent showers of rain, and at no time within many years has it been so welcome to the people of this valley. Yesterday afternoon it literally poured, a [illegible] shower came on and we presume a [illegible] has fallen by this time to be of great [illegible] in the navigation of the Willamette and Yamhill rivers. We are sure everybody will be rejoiced at it.

RACES.—We learn that Pat Smith, who bought the fast mare, Nellie Huntington, of the Welch Brothers at Salem for $1,000, will send her to San F[illegible] she will be kept and trained this winter and sent to New York next spring. She has made a mile in 2:44 and can do it much quicker. She was raised by Mr. Frederick of Polk county, and sold last spring for $225.

QUICK TRIP.—Mr. Jacob Mann arrived at this city last week from the Eastern States. He made the trip from [illegible], Illinois to this city in thirteen days, overland. This we believe is the quickest time yet made from any point east of the Mississippi, to Oregon.

ARRIVED.—The steamer John L. Stephens from San Francisco arrived at her berth on Saturday morning about nine o'clock. She was about one week on the voyage, including stoppages. Her memoranda and passenger list will be found elsewhere.

WILL SAIL.—The steamer John L. Stephens will sail for San Francisco to-morrow at 8 o'clock P. M., via Victoria.

IF A MAN wants to buy or sell real estate, or lease the same or have collections made, or wants to lend or borrow money, or any business of that character done, one of the best things he can do is to consult Messrs. Stitzel & Upton. They are in possession of superior facilities for transacting business in their line, and those who deal through them will find everything done squarely, with energy and dispatch. Read their new advertisement.

[illegible] FOR CORVALLIS.—Jamison's line of stages will [illegible] hereafter at Lafayette with J. W. Lancaster's line for Corvallis, via Dayton, Amity, Bethel, Dixie and Dallas. The fare through from Portland to Corvallis is [illegible] and as the route passes through some of the finest country in Oregon, we expect many will patronize this new line.

THE FIRM of Heuston, Hastings & Co., Lick House Block, San Francisco, has been dissolved and their large stock of goods are to be sold soon regardless of cost, to close out the business and make room for a splendid assortment of [illegible] to be received by their successors, C. C. Hastings & Co. Parties buying goods at San Francisco should not fail to visit this house.

THOSE DESIRING TO PURCHASE machinery, agricultural implements, etc., cannot do better on this coast than to patronize the well known house of Messrs. Treadwell & Co., San Francisco. Their stock is large and contains the latest improvements. They will be found prompt and reliable by all who deal with them.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. [illegible] has opened a Night School in the [illegible] (up stairs) near the Catholic Church [illegible] Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and [illegible] per month. For Book[illegible] per month. School [illegible] P. M.

BEAVER BO[illegible] announcing to the [illegible] open to-day the [illegible] French Beavers of a [illegible] ever brought [illegible] fashionable suit[illegible] Brothers and [illegible] the attention of [illegible] line, together with [illegible] which they are selling wholesale, at San Francisco prices.

Offsets to Our Debt Stanton's Speech

[illegible] that bright Sunday morning, when [illegible] at the news [illegible] that a new more [illegible] the day before [illegible] was [illegible] to [illegible] later [illegible] that a little [illegible] for three [illegible] together [illegible] who for [illegible] our whole [illegible] expenditure would have [illegible] share in the glory of the [illegible] And when, on another Sunday the world beheld that great [illegible] of the deep [illegible] Winslow and the Kearsarge sent by a single shot the rebel [illegible] to the bottom of the sea, who would sell [illegible] glory of that achievement [illegible] in his country? And yet these are things on which financiers of the New York Convention are busy with pencil and slate in their hands to cipher away. [Laughter.] But they have quite other things in their minds when they profess to be figuring and reckoning his cents and interest. Their hearts are mindful of something else. They are thinking of Meade and Gettysburg, at [illegible] of the rebel ranks mowed by our artillery like grass before the scythe in that two days battle. They are thinking of Sherman hewing his way from the mountains to the sea. [Applause.] They are thinking of George Thomas dashing their army into pieces at Nashville. [Applause.] They are thinking of the bloody fight of Schofield at Franklin, when the cannon balls crushed through the bones of the rebel soldiers and their officers like hail as thick as Lannes heard at Montebello. [Applause.] They are thinking of Butler's triumphant entry into New Orleans [applause and hisses] and his patriotic administration. They are thinking of the humbling of the horn of the rebellion before the stars and stripes. They are thinking of Canby and the capture of Mobile. But above all they are thinking of that day when Lee surrendered his sword and his army to Grant, and when the voice of a great nation was lifted up in thanksgiving and praise to the Lord of Hosts. [A voice: "Glory to His name."] Against these things the financiers of the New York Convention may cipher in vain until the very figures shall burn and blister their eyeballs. [Applause.] You fellow citizens will be mindful of these things. You will lay them to your hearts when you come to make your choice for President of the United States, and for your Representatives in Congress. You will talk of them in your family by your firesides, and you will press them upon your neighbors. You will toil with them until the day of the polls, and the election of Grant and Colfax and a Republican Congress will be a crowning blessing to you and your prosperity forever. [Applause.]

Hear what they Said.—The rebels put in the Confederate Constitution a clause making human slavery the corner stone of their edifice, and they put in another clause inhibiting foreigners from becoming citizens of that oligarchy! They would have no outside interference from the "scum of Europe." Hear what the Southern Literary Messenger, an influential journal among them, said on that subject:

When the struggle for independence is finished, the door of our Janus closed in token of the termination of the bloody strife, and the laurels of victory entwine the brow of the youthful Confederacy, "no foreigner who comes among us should ever enjoy the elective franchise." If we cannot check the spread over our Territory of "that spawn of ignorance and crime" which flows in endless issue from the prisons and dens of corruption in the marts of Europe, we can at least shut out its cankering effects from the vitals of our body politic.

People's Railroads.—Mr. Bridges Adams an eminent English engineer, proposes to lay down bands of iron on ordinary roads, and run locomotives and trains upon them, at a speed of from five to thirty miles an hour. As he says, in a letter to the London Times:

"The practical fact is, that properly constructed engines and carriages can run upon as sharp curves and up as steep gradients as horses can, and with a power of carrying loads that no horses could ever accomplish; and, therefore, every common road of England has the capacity for becoming a railway, with its inns, stations, towns, villages, farms, and water supply already provided. These common roads intersect the railways and form approaches in every direction, with very little outlay. The rails can be laid flat with the surface, and permit the traffic of ordinary vehicles so long as horse vehicles continue to be used."

All's not Gold that Glitters.—Not long since a green looking Vermonter walked into the store of Dr. C. T. Jackson, the chemist, and addressed him as follows:

"Dr. Jackson, I presume?"

"Yes, sir."

"Are you alone?"

"Yes, sir."

"May I lock the door?" and he did so, and having looked behind the sofa and satisfied himself that no one else was in the room, he placed a large bundle, done up in a yellow bandanna, on the table and opened it.

"There, Doctor, look at that."

"Well," said the Doctor, "I see it."

"What do you call that, Doctor?"

"I call it iron pyrites."

"What!" exclaimed the man, "isn't that stuff gold?"

"No," said the Doctor, "it's good for nothing," and putting some over the fire in a shovel, it evaporated up the chimney.

"Wal," said the poor fellow with a woe-begone look, "there's a widder woman up in our town has a whole hill full of that, and I've been and married her!"

He Catches Another.—The S. F. Chronicle of Oct. 15th has the following:

The irrepressible Captain Moss of the Examiner who not long ago was so fortunate as to secure certain bets on the Maine election, was over at San Leandro on Saturday, where he made another equally judicious investment. The valiant and sanguine Captain perambulated and pervaded the Estudillo House, expressing his conviction that Seymour would be our next President. An obstinate and [illegible] Republican named Moses Weeks, who could not see it in that light, offered the Captain a wager of $1,000 even to one [illegible] the next President [illegible] these [illegible]. The Captain promptly accepted the wager. He had faith in Seymour and [illegible] testified his faith by accepting the proffered wager. Yesterday the parties met in this city and consummated the arrangement by depositing a cool $1,000 apiece in the Bank of California. These preliminaries being settled, another came forward and offered Weeks $400 cash for his wager. The latter, thinking he had a particularly good thing, declined to sell on the terms proposed, declaring he preferred $1,000 to $400, which was natural enough under the circumstances.

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes:

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself in [illegible]. Murray's Improved Magic Oil [illegible] the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing effects that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago [illegible] also Dr. Murray's [illegible] Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil [illegible] remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, [illegible] Distressing Lameness, etc.

The English [illegible] Mr. [illegible] writes:

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities [illegible] cough for two months so that I had to use crutches [illegible] while trying all remedies [illegible] Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in five days without crutches. Soothing and Bracing.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

TO THE ENTERPRISING

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon and is now ready to supply immediately the farmers of this state with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine, the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack and then walking and dragging his grain [illegible].

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a [illegible] which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save, not the cost in labor of one—many nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State, as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

Lincoln, (Placer Co.) Sept. 6 [illegible]

Mr. H. A. Gaston—Dear Sir, I have [illegible] machines X-L-SIOR which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers as the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my [illegible] to sow any better than they do. I have sowed and [illegible] them perfectly. I. C. PERINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at [illegible] corner of Front and Morrison streets in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates. o6dlp1m w1m JAMES BRUSIE.

EXTINGUISHER

SELF ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

[illegible] of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtha, and combustible materials now in common use.

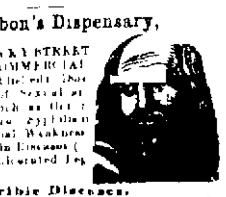
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering with a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrible situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured before it may be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, and to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with boguses [illegible] to [illegible] upon the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. [illegible]

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietors [illegible] confident of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

K. B. M'SHIRE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. B. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROBT. RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
